Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you for your support during another busy week. I am sorry that the newsletter has been delayed and is shorter than usual. As Mrs Morris explained in Golden Assembly, unfortunately Mr Whittaker is poorly, but she, and the rest of the team, have been doing an excellent job keeping things running smoothly.

Dropping off and picking up

Thank you for keeping Maddison Lane clear at drop off and collection times, we appreciate that it is frustrating having to ark further away of drive around the block and come back but it is important for the safety of all of the children, families and local residents. Thank you also for ensuing that all engines are switched off.
