Newsletter – Friday 21st June 2019

Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you for all the responses to the Ofsted inspection, both online and offline. We were grateful for the support that was coming from Facebook aswell! We will be able to report on the outcome in a few weeks' time.

Golden Writers

Another Gunby inspired poem from Martha caught the interest of our guests last week and have suggested that we send it to Gunby Hall to show how it has inspired our children. Well done, Martha! After Ronnie's special mention for writing last week, he made the gold frame this week, with a lovely retelling of Jack and the Beanstalk. Beautiful vocabulary – well done, Ronnie. Oscar has been working loads on his handwriting over the last few months and I was delighted to see that his work this week really shows it off. Keep it up Oscar – it is super!

Writing Club – cancelled for Wednesday

Mrs Lill will not be here on Wednesday and I'm afraid our other teachers will be doing a writing moderation after school at Willoughby. Home2School club will be available for free if you would like to take advantage of this as a result.

Cool Milk

We are now able to provide milk for free for everyone. If you have ordered milk for your child from cool milk, it would now be a good idea to cancel your order/direct debit.

Reception for next year

We were delighted to meet new reception parents on Tuesday evening and we are looking forward to meeting our new Reception on Tuesday morning. I know that everyone will make both the children and parents feel very welcome.
