Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you so much for supporting us in what has been a very busy and fun last week of term! We have enjoyed the Christingle Service at St Martin's Church with Father Terry (see picture); Christmas Lunch and Party Day, pantomimes and a special virtual Christmas service held by the Diocese. I hope your children have enjoyed it and it has put them in a Christmassy frame of mind for the next (a whole!) week –I have attached an 'It's Christmas' chat mat to this email which can be printed and coloured and chatted about! Bring them back in the new term!

Thank you on behalf of all the staff for the extremely generous gifts for the staffroom. I can assure you that they have been very much appreciated and what has not been selflessly and valiantly consumed by the end of today, will be stored to help us along at the beginning of next term!

Clubs next term

Home2 School and breakfast club will begin straightaway on Tuesday 4th January. Other clubs will begin the following week beginning Monday 10th January. We will remind you of days and times etc next term.

PFA Raffle

Our raffle made £145! Thank you to everyone who took part and to Spilsby Co-op for donating the lovely hamper. The winners were the adults of: Ronnie, Oscar W, Logan, Oscar W, Ellsey, Lulu and Lucas. Prizes will be sent home with the children.

Christmas Jumper day for Save the Children

Thank you – we raised £40 for Save the Children through children wearing their Christmas Jumpers on Wednesday!

Have a lovely Christmas and best wishes to you all!
